

CLASS OF 1965 - NUMBER 5 - FALL

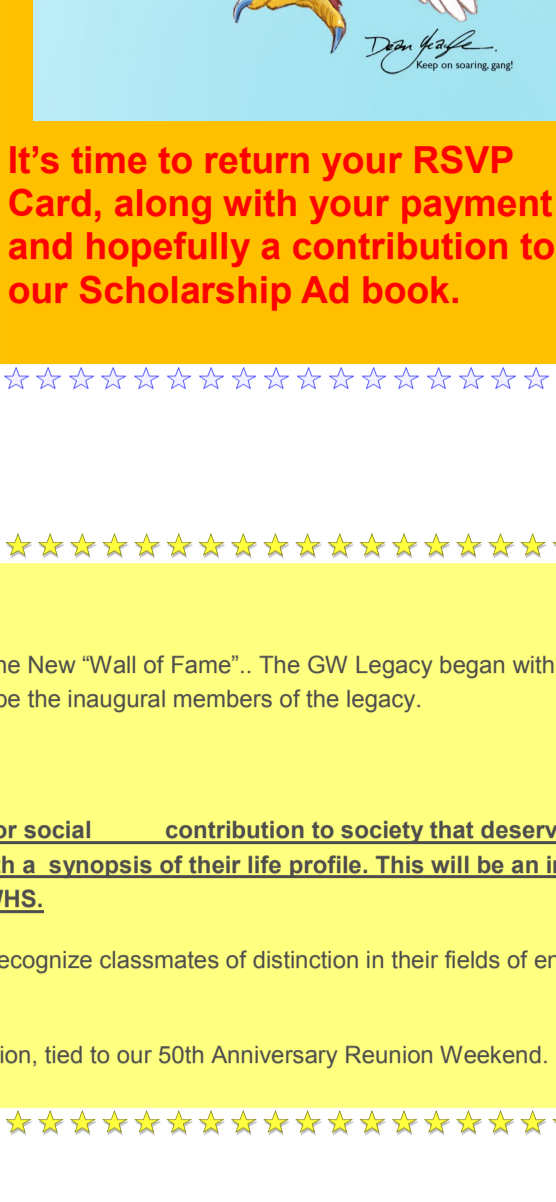

In this issue:

- * Reunion Update
* Scholarship Ad book
* Memorabilia
* New GW 'Wall of Fame'
* Lots of Classmate Highlights

Reunion Update

Invites went out before Labor Day. Get your responses back in ASAP so we have an accurate count of attendees and the time to prepare for the crowd and our Ad book

Check the Website to see the Confirmed Attendees... The list grows every day, along with the ad commitments

It's time to return your RSVP Card, along with your payment and hopefully a contribution to our Scholarship Ad book.

GWHS 'Wall of Fame' Update

As part of our 50th Anniversary Reunion year, our Class will initiate the New 'Wall of Fame'.. The GW Legacy began with our class and 'The Wall' will begin with the recognition of classmates to be the inaugural members of the Legacy.

'Nominations have begun to be submitted'

If you know of classmates who have made a special vocational or social contribution to society that deserves recognition, please submit your name or the name of others with a synopsis of their life profile. This will be an important part of exposing a 50 year legacy that is unknown to GWHS.

Located prominently by the school entrance, the 'Wall of Fame' will recognize classmates of distinction in their fields of endeavor, their mark in their community, and service to our country.

Our Committee is seeking nominations for this prestigious first induction, tied to our 50th Anniversary Reunion Weekend.

Recent Classmate Loss:

Elliott Pollack (#75)—August 16, 2015

Scholarship Ad book

Reunion Program / Scholarship Ad-Book

Important! !!!!

Join your many classmates in supporting our gift to the GW Legacy. Ad Requests have begun to come in. You can see the early contributor son the updated Classmates list.

Purchase an ad to help fund the long term funding of the Class of '65 Legacy Award.

All levels of support are welcome. Add your contribution to the invite RSVP card.

See our website: www.GWHS1965.org for details

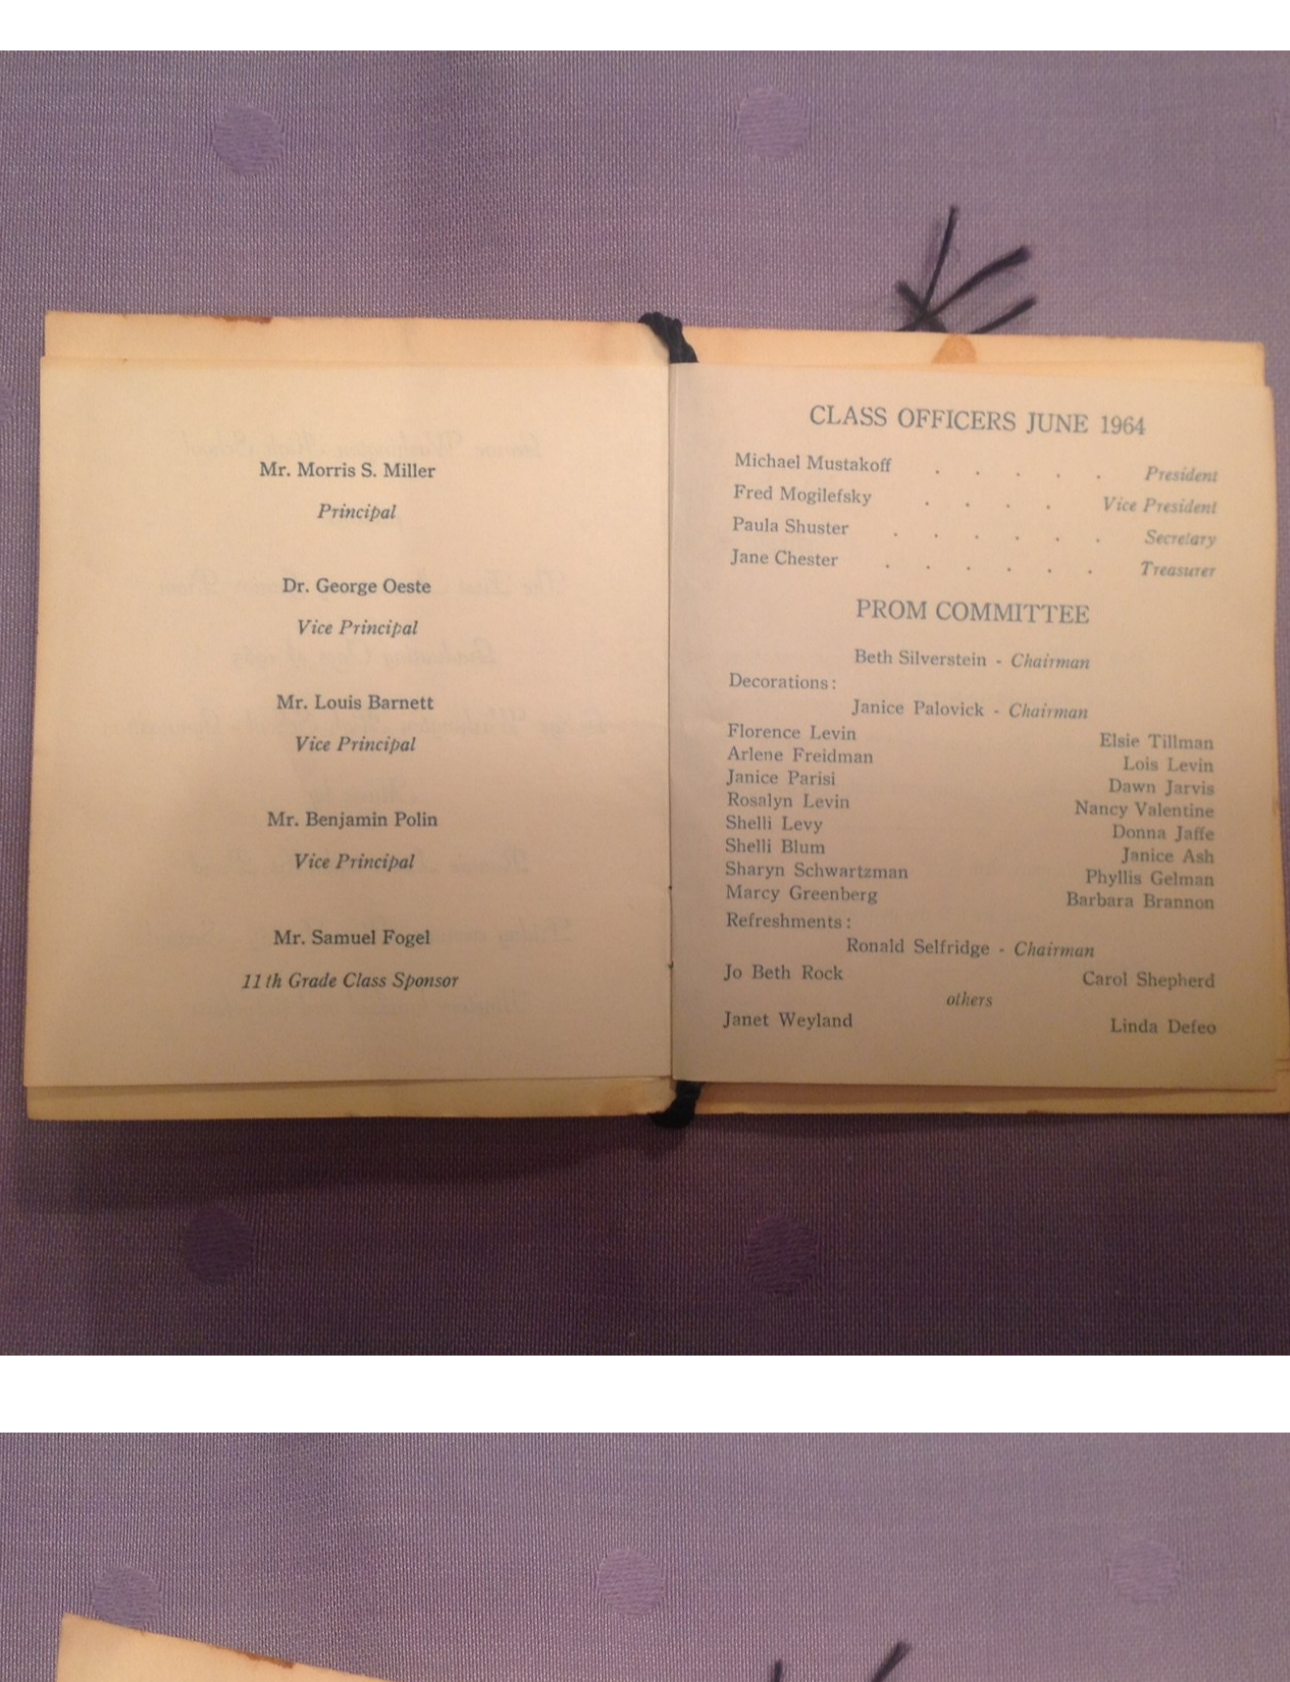

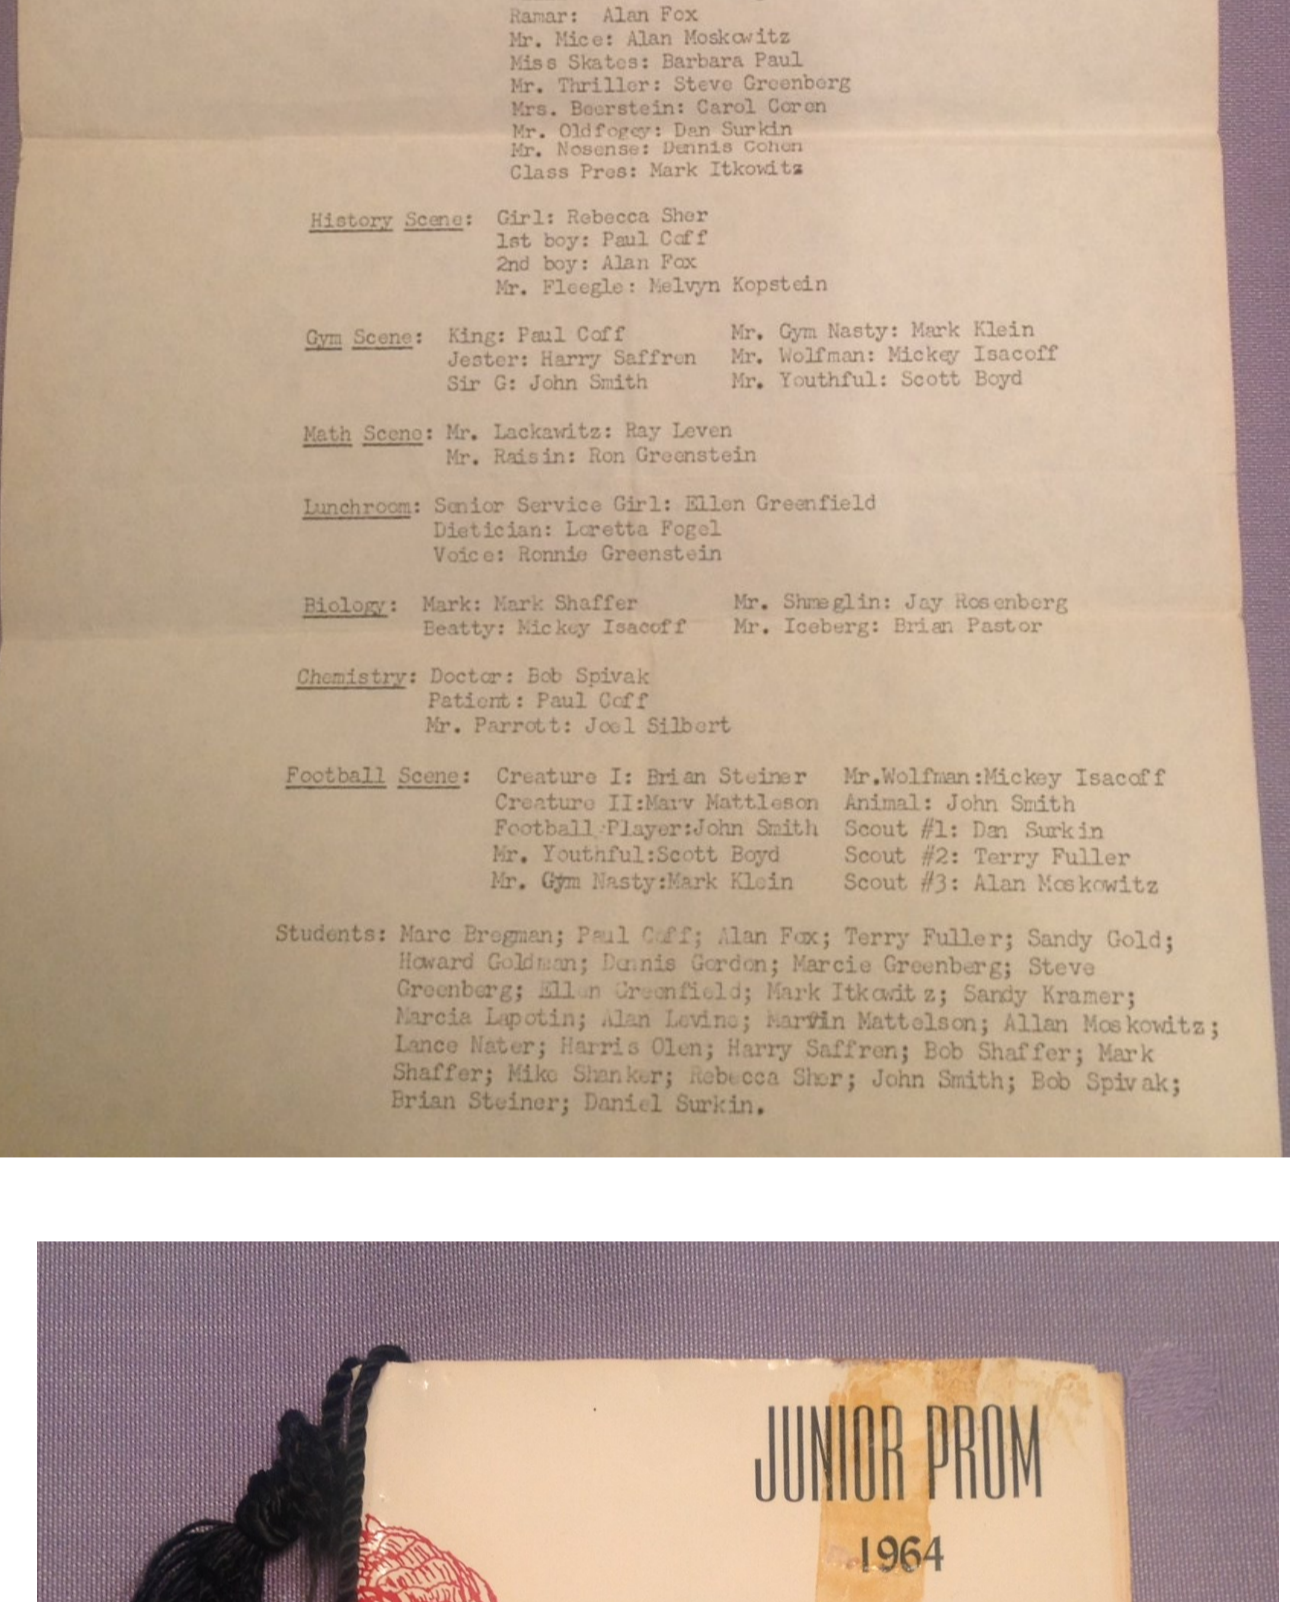

GWHS—Wall of Fame Entries

Entries have started to come in. Please forward your nominations of special classmates that have are leaving their mark on society, their vocation and/or their special mission in life.

Memorabilia:

Courtesy of Linda Juchatz

Lots more to see in-person at Reunion

Courtesy of Ray Fitch

Classmate Highlights

Sandra Brown (Patrick): Sandra lives in Barrington, RI and is a Registered Respiratory Therapist, with a Bachelors in Biology. She currently is a Research Associate.

Her achievements have included authoring 24 scientific journals, with additional contributions to neuroscience textbooks. Running away from home to NYC at age 17 for 11/2 years after finishing only one year at NYU gave her career a rocky start, but she completed her Bachelors Degree over a period of 22 years, while working full-time, raising two girls and going to school at night.

Her interests include biking, kayaking, hiking, organic gardening, painting, photography and travel. Charitable endeavors include; Barrington Conservation Land Trust, Big Sisters of RI and Literacy Volunteers of America.

Stuart Knable: His current residence is Garnet Valley, PA. Stuart holds a BS in Management & Marketing from Philadelphia U. (textile), a BA in Education from St. Joseph's and an MA in Management Consulting from Villanova.

His Charitable endeavors include; Wounded Warriors, PhilaBundance, Petsmart Charities and Volunteering.

Donna Jaffe (Bader): Donna resides in Cinaminson, NJ. She holds a BS ED. From Temple U. and a M.ED. From Temple U. She has been a Master Teacher at the U. of Penn., Holy family U., Gratz College and Marywood. Her primary career included 37 years teaching in the School District of Phila. .

Her hobbies include her granddaughters, friends, Caryn holds a BA in Psychology from Temple U.

Cary was a franchise operator for Radio Shack for 27 years. After retirement he has worked at Macy's in Hyattsville, MD. He has been married to the same woman for over 40 years, has two children and two grandchildren.

He has traveled extensively and recently returned from St. Petersburg, Russia.

Mark Itkowitz: Senior Vice President, Executive Creative Director. Mark is a resident of Scottsdale, AZ. For over 41 years, Mark has enjoyed a career in advertising, writing and producing commercials for national clients and shooting all over the world.

Prior to joining LaneTerraLeave 13 years ago, Mark worked for 28 years at some New York's biggest advertising agencies and is one of the only real Mad Men working in Arizona. He was Vice President, Creative Supervisor at BBDO New York and Executive Vice President, Creative Director at Jordan, McGrath, Case and Partners. Other agencies include Grey Worldwide and DDB Worldwide.

Among his many clients have been Procter & Gamble, Nestle Foods, Dodge Cars and Trucks, The Quaker Oats Company, Glaxo SmithKline, Squibb, Starz and Encore Movie Channels, Hunt/Wesson, Novartis, Campbell's Soup, Progresso Foods, Hasbro Toys, Sega Video Games, Pillsbury, Gillette, Sheraton Hotels and Leaver Brothers.

At LaneTerraLeave, his clients have included Cable One, Titled Kilt Pub & Eatery, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Visit Phoenix Tourism, Arizona Dept of Health Services and The Arizona Billboard.

Mark has won Clio's, Effies, Addys, Mobius, Telly and Adria Awards as well as individual achievement awards from Procter & Gamble and Novartis. He has been a member of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) and Broadcast Music International (BMI).

Dena Millman: Her current residence is in New York City, Dena holds a BS in Spanish Education/ Theater Arts from NYU, along with an MA in Latin American Literature and studies in advanced language and anthropology from Universidad Nacional DE Mexico, Mexico City.

She is a certified Spanish Interpreter and Founder, Court Interpreters and Translators Association and worked with the Senate Judiciary Committee on Testimony on Certification for languages other than Spanish.

Her primary career has included being a Certified Judicial Interpreter/Translator for the U.S. Attorney and District Court since 1975. Her other endeavors include being a simultaneous conference translator, along with being a professor of simultaneous interpreting at Miami and NYC Universities.

Her Hobbies include singing, writing, volunteering at animal shelters.

Edward Solow, MD: Ed currently resides in Philadelphia. His education includes: a BS from Albright College, MD from Jefferson University, Internal Medicine Residency and a Cardiology fellowship.

His career has include being a Cardiologist/Physician, along with being a Healthcare consultant. His hobbies include Photography and Cooking.

Sharon Einagorn (Polsky): Her current residence is Blue Bell, PA. Sharon has a BA in Biology from Temple U. and an MS in Anatomy from Medical College of PA. She has taught Anatomy and Physiology for 31 years at Sainted Mercy University, now retired. Since her husband retired, a Vascular Surgeon, they have enjoyed traveling and especially visiting Marco Island, FL and Margate, NJ and spending time with their seven grandchildren.

She has served on various committees and the Board of Her synagogue.

Edward Tannebaum, AIA: Currently resides in Huntington Valley, PA. Ed attended Temple U. and has a B. Architecture Degree from Kansas State U., where he serves on the Dean's Advisory Executive Board. He is registered in 24 states and has worked and has been a Principal for a major Design/Build firm over the past 20 years. He also has worked for Johnson & Johnson and a Major Construction Management Firm. His subject matter expertise has been the design, strategic planning and execution of Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Facilities worldwide.

He has been published in Pharmaceutical Design journals and a frequent speaker at trade organizations. Semi-retired, he is consulting on a variety of pharmaceutical projects in North and South America to fill in his time.

Charly endeavors include active participation in the Federation Housing Inc., for Older Affordable Adult Housing in NE Philly, Bucks and Mont. Co., Golden Slipper Club, American Institute of Architects, Carpenters Co. of City and Co. of Phila. and the Dean's Advisory Board of Phila. U.

He has enjoyed really his involvement with the Reunion Committee as the webmaster and author of this newsletter. It has been great reconnecting with so many classmates after 50 years. Other interests include Golf, travel and spending time with his two granddaughters in NYC.

Carol Coren: Her current residence is Southampton, PA. Carol is a principal in Cornerstone Ventures LLC, a business development company that helps clients investigate, build or invest in social enterprises. Much of her recent work has focused on strengthening communities' food systems through sustainable investments in Controlled Environment Agriculture (CEA) growing centers, local Food Distribution Hubs, grocery stores, and in food processing, production and merchandising businesses. These have created jobs and revenues for challenged rural and urban communities and played roles in advancing locally operated disease prevention, wellness support and healthy diet initiatives.

During the course of a long career that began as a broadcast journalist for local stations and a proponent for women's rights, arts and culture, she has been engaged in creating jobs and livelihoods for challenged groups including displaced homemakers, emigres and refugees, veterans, and people with disabilities.

She was a pioneering proponent of Community Development Financial Institutions in the US where she launched two certified CDFIs for microenterprise entrepreneurs and played a role in early Individual Development (Savings) Account program for economically challenged families. Her work as Director of Community Programs for Oregon State University's Portland Food Innovation Center and as a Co-operative Program Specialist and Educator for Rutgers University's Food Innovation Center engaged her in advancing agriculture, purchasing and merchandising cooperatives and in providing support to Coop Development Centers.

She is currently participating in programs of the Association of Co-operative Educators and the International Cooperative Association, assisting a national Veterans To Farmers organization use co-operative models to launch vertical farming businesses, and carrying out research on shared service cooperatives.

Tom McKay: His current residence is Syracuse, NY. He attended Temple U. and received his BA in Philosophy from Swarthmore College, followed by a Ph.D. in Philosophy from U. of Massachusetts. He was a Philosophy Professor at Syracuse U. for 41 years and is now retired.

His activities include Birding and is a Musician, focused on classical and jazz. Charly endeavors include the Syracuse Friends of Chamber Music where he serves as President.

Steven Glauser, Ph.D.: Steven is a resident of Elkins Park, PA. He holds degrees including a BA in Psychology, M.ED. In Psychoeducational Processes and a Ph.D. in Psychology. He works as a Consulting Psychologist. His hobbies include traveling, travel, film and golf.

Charity activities include American Diabetes Association, Amnesty International and Doctors without Borders.

Marty Block (Manson): When I graduated GW I worked in a bank and then in 1968, I found my way to Temple Univ. First I was a clerical worker and after a year, I was promoted to the secretary to the Dean of the Graduate School of Business. I loved this job as I was able to admit hundreds of students from all over the world.

While working at Temple U, we were able to take free courses at night-and that was it, the education bug finally hit me and in 1971, I enrolled in Temple Univ full time (they no longer paid tuition, but kept me on as a student worker). In the summer of 1974, I completed a B.S. degree in Early Childhood Ed and Elementary Ed. I then began teaching in Special Ed, at a private school, and so I got a Masters Degree in Special Ed, in 1985. Through the years, I have also taught another +60 graduate credits.

In 1988, I started the Aviva group of Hadassah. We have since merged with the Rabin group to form the Aviva Rabin group of Hadassah. I am still very active in this group, with over 200 members!